

ELIGIBILITY FOR IN-HOUSE ADMISSION

Five Years LL.B Course :-

A candidate, in order to be eligible for admission to the First Year shall follow rules given by CET CELL (www.mahacet.org)

A candidate, in order to be eligible for admission (In-house) to the Third Semester, must have either passed in the First and Second semesters or should have received an exemption in at least four Papers of the First and Second semester examination.

A candidate for being eligible for admission (In-house) for the Fifth Semester, must have passed the First & Second Semester, & must have either passed in Third & Fourth Semester or must have got exemption in at least 4 papers of the Third & Fourth Semester Examinations.

For promotion of LL.B students to higher from semester VI to VII of 5 yrs programme, the students have to clear at least 7 Subjects out of 10 Subjects of the year from which promotion is applied for including the courses on applied components.

For promotion of LL.B students to higher from semester VIII to IX of 5 yrs programme, the students have to clear at least 7 Subjects out of 10 Subjects of the year from which promotion is applied for including the courses on applied components.

Three Years LL.B. Course :-

A candidate, in order to be eligible for admission to the First Year shall follow rules given by CET CELL (www.mahacet.org)

For promotion of LL.B students to higher from semester II to III of 3 yrs programme, the students have to clear at least 7 subjects out of 10 subjects of the year from which promotion is applied for including the courses on applied components.

For promotion of LL.B students to higher from semester IV to V of 3 yrs programme, the students have to clear at least 7 subjects out of 10 subjects of the year from which promotion is applied for including the courses on applied components.